

Master Sergeant Stephanie L. Thomas
Headquarters Air Force Services Agency

Master Sergeant Stephanie L. Thomas is assigned as Air Force Food & Beverage Manager, Headquarters Air Force Services Agency, San Antonio, Texas. Sergeant Thomas is responsible for Air Force food management, policy, and procedures; working closely with Department of Defense, Headquarters USAF, Major Commands, other military services, government agencies, and civilian industries. She provides technical direction and oversight for the Air Force Food & Beverage program that comprises 276 facilities and manages an operational budget of $300M.

MSgt Thomas enlisted in the Air Force in October 1992 as a Food Service Specialist. She has performed various duties from within the Services Career field to include Quality Assurance, Lodging Technician, Fitness Center NCOIC and Storeroom Manager. MSgt Thomas has demonstrated the determination and passion to succeed in all facets of the career field. She has served in this capacity for six separate squadrons affecting over 30,000 DOD personnel.

She has deployed to Cuba, Korea, Saudi Arabia, United Arab Emirates, Kuwait and Kyrgyzstan in direct support of humanitarian operations as well as the global war on terrorism. Furthermore, she has earned numerous awards ranging from Amn, NCO, and SNCO of the Year to annual recognitions from civic organizations.

