

Hennessy Travelers Association Recognizes Top Air National Guard Services Flight

WESTFIELD - On May 18th during the Hennessy Travelers Association's National Hotel-Motel Show in Chicago Ill., the group announced its 2009 annual award winners for military culinary excellence and the 104th Services Flight from Barnes Air National Guard Base was selected as the top Air National Guard Food Services Squadron in the Nation. Among restaurant and tourism professionals from throughout the country, the 40 members of the 104th were recognized by receiving the Senior Master Sgt. Kenneth W. Disney trophy. This annual award recognizes the Air National Guard unit that provides the highest quality guest service and food quality while inspiring teamwork and dedication.

The Disney award is named for former food service manager Senior Master Sgt. Kenneth Disney, who was tragically killed outside of McGhee Tyson Air Base, Tennessee in 1977. Senior Master Sgt. Disney was known for his innovative approach to advancing military food service into a fine dining experience.

"We are very proud of our Services members, they worked extremely hard preparing for this competition," stated Col. Robert T. Brooks Jr., 104th Fighter Wing Commander. "This award is a testament to their dedication and commitment to serve the members of this base."

This is the second time in 5 years that the team from Barnes has been selected as the top Services Flight in the Air National Guard. Under the leadership of Capt. Ramon Diaz Jr., Chief Master Sgt. Richard Bates, Senior Master Sgt. Richard Baker, Senior Master Sgt. Bill Butman and Master Sgt. Jim Tierney, the team was able to demonstrate for the judges what the BameStormer family has come to expect from the 104th Services Flight...pure excel-loaded from Scribd.com, and more than 4,200 copies were viewed online before the material was pulled from the document-sharing site at Wizards' request, according to two of the lawsuits.

One of those cases, which names as defendants Thomas Patrick Nola of Milton, Fla., and Stefan Osmer of the Philippines, is headed for mediation, according to a court filing Tuesday.

Another case is against Michael Becker of Bartlesville, Okla., and Arthur Le of San Jose, Calif.

The third, filed against Krzysztof Radzikowski of Poland and three people whose identities remain unknown, did not cite any numbers but asserted that unauthorized copies of that handbook are "Manual of the Planes," "Open Grave: Secrets of the Undead" and "Dungeon Delve," each retailing for $29.95, also were found on document-sharing Web sites.

Tolena Thorburn, a Wizards spokeswoman, would not give the home towns or other personal contact information for Osmer and Radzikowski.
