

MULTIPLE CATEGORY ADVISORS

Mr. Gregory J. Hamer, Sr.
National Restaurant Association

Greg Hamer is the owner of B & G Food Enterprises, Inc., which includes B&G Food and affiliated companies that are responsible for operations of 53 Taco Bell and KFC franchise restaurants in Louisiana, Mississippi, and Texas. Greg's entire family is involved in the operation, which employs a workforce of approximately 1,500. His path of leadership involvement with restaurant associations began with his 3 terms as president of the Bayou Chapter from 1992-1994. In 1996, he became a member of the LRA Executive Committee and progressed to preside over the Louisiana Restaurant Association state board as its president in 2000.

In 2001 Greg Hamer was elected to the National Restaurant Association's Board representing Louisiana operators and was subsequently re-elected for an additional 3 year term and is awaiting re-election for his third term in May 2007. His involvement with the National Restaurant Association includes his participation as a member in the following National Restaurant Association committees: Government Affairs and Public Policy; Marketing, Communications and Media; Member Development; Convention; Tourism; Audit; Pensions, Benefits Review Task Force; Research and Regulatory Affairs; and the Committee of the Chairs. He is currently the Vice Chairman for the Bylaws and Policy Manual Committee and is the National Restaurant Association Board Exchange Director to the Canadian Restaurant and Food Services Association.

Greg is also a member of the Southeast KFC Franchisee Association Board of Directors, President of the Gulf South Taco Bell Advertising Association, President of the Houston KFC Advertising Co-OP, a member of the Taco Bell Franchise Management Advisory Council, and has earned the restaurant industry's professional credential, Foodservice Management Professional (FMP). Greg was the $10,000 Parish Businessman of the Year in 2002 and in the same year was elected to the Louisiana Restaurant Hall of Fame.