

Senior Master Sergeant Troy J. Miller
Headquarters Air Force Services Agency

SMSgt Troy Miller is assigned to the Readiness Plans and Programs Branch, Headquarters Air Force Services Agency, San Antonio, Texas. He is responsible for developing and executing guidance for 13 core/enabling competencies supporting contingency/natural disaster operations. He also manages SVS Expeditionary Combat Support role with over 25 equipment modernization/field automation programs. Furthermore, he controls RAF/AI Unit Type Code (UTC)/Mission Capability Statement (MISCAP) requirement revisions and updates. Finally, he determines wartime manning requirements for Force Support Squadron (FSS) Capabilities Based Manpower Standards (CBMS).

SMSgt Miller has held a variety of assignments, October 1986 - December 1986, Student, Basic Military Training; Lackland AFB, Texas, January 1987 - September 1997, Dining Facility Storeroom Manager, Tyndall AFB, Florida; September 1997 - September 1999, Dining Facility Shift Leader, Lajes Field, Azores; September 1999 - July 2003, Dining Facility Manager, Ellsworth AFB, South Dakota; July 2003 - August 2005, Chief, Services Planner, 16th Air Force, Aviano AB, Italy; August 2005 - August 2006, Food Service Superintendent, Aviano AB, Italy; August 2006 - July 2008, Student, Masters Program, Air Force Institute of Technology, Ohio; July 2008 - present, Readiness Plans and Programs Manager, HQ AFSVA.

His education accomplishments are as follows, 1991 - U.S. Air Force Airmen Leadership School, Tyndall AFB, Florida; 2000 - Associate's degree in Fitness, Recreation and Services Management, CCAF; 2000 - U.S. Air Force NCO Academy, Keesler AFB, Mississippi; 2004 - Bachelor's degree in Business Management, National American University, South Dakota; 2006 - U.S. Air Force SNCO Academy, Maxwell AFB, Alabama; 2008 - Master's degree in Logistics Management, Air Force Institute of Technology, Ohio.