

Senior Master Sergeant Richard J. Scott
Headquarters Air Force Services Agency

Senior Master Sergeant Richard J. Scott is assigned as Chief, Field Support Section, Air Force Food and Beverage Division, Headquarters Air Force Services Agency, Randolph Air Force Base, Texas. Sergeant Scott is responsible for Air Force's food management, policy and procedures for 5K personnel and 276 worldwide food operations. Sergeant Scott is from Syracuse New York. He holds a Bachelor degree in Occupational Education and two Community College of the Air Force degrees.

Sergeant Scott enlisted in the New York Air National Guard in April 1982, and later joined the United States Air Force in June 1984. His background includes various duties in the Services career field to include Cook, Baker, Shift Leader, Dining Facility Manager, Quality Assurance Evaluator, Services Instructor, Food Service Superintendent, Combat Support Flight Chief, PACAF Command Food Service Superintendent and Multi National Forces-Iraq Senior Food Service Advisor. His assignments included bases in New York, California, Texas, South Dakota, Washington and Hawaii. He also served overseas in The Republic of Korea, Germany and Iraq.

His decorations include the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal with 2 oak leaf clusters, the Air Force Commendation Medal with 2 oak leaf clusters, the Air Force Achievement Medal with 2 oak leaf clusters and the Iraqi Campaign Medal. He is also the recipient of The Honorable Order of the Saint Martin award from the United States Army Association of Quartermasters. Sergeant Scott has been married 17 years to Madonna Bradshaw and they have eleven children.

